Peaceful Haven nestled between the Caribbean Sea and the Placencia Lagoon.

Mi Sastun is a 3-bedroom home that sits right in the middle of a large Maya Beach lot that has canal access to the Placencia Lagoon and is only steps from the Caribbean Sea. The name, Sastun refers to an implement of healing used by a Mayan shaman and given to him by his gods.

A Sastun could be a shell, a crystal or a stone. In this case, it is a home. Mi Sastun has had a healing and rejuvenating effect on me every time I have visited or stayed for any length of time. This home is truly Mi Sastun.

Perfectly located close to all amenities in Maya beach, there's a resort called The Green Parrot right across the street and Maya Beach Bistro is a few minutes' walk North of Mi Sastun. This home is also on VRBO and has periodically been rented to holiday goers.

There are 2 outbuildings on the property, for a caretaker and possibly a long term tenant.
